Jay and Bridget mix crayon and magic and get some dazzling results. Next up: England's greatest magician, David Devant, performs the Artist's Dream, a revolutionary trick in which he brings a painting to life. Bridget teaches Jay to make 'magic themed' fridge magnets. Jay combines magic and mind reading and presents some mind blowing mathemagic. He then takes on the role of Roger Bacon, a 13th century Franciscan friar who devoted his life to science, math, philosophy – and magic. What's Bridget thinking? Only the magician Jay knows! Today's Tricky History will feature the famous magician J. N. Maskelyne and his adventures in exposing spiritual frauds. Jay has a bag of tricks and that means plenty of incredible magic. He and Bridget then go back in time to look at the magic bag of tricks belonging to Isaac Fawkes. It's said he could pull out almost anything from it – including 45 eggs and a chicken!

Inspired by his new romance, Will sets feverishly to work on his play, determined to write the greatest love story ever told-"Romeo and Juliet"! Featuring an all-star cast and a razor-sharp, Academy Award-winning screenplay by Tom Stoppard and Marc Norman, this modern classic also received the Oscar for Best Picture, as well as earning trophies for Paltrow and Dame Judy Dench for her performance as Queen Elizabeth I.
